

“Nowadays everywhere you look you can see trash. When I venture into the woods, I also see lots of trash. This is unfortunate, because not only does it look bad, but it also harms animals. Even though signs tell you not to litter, people ignore them. This is what I hope to change in the future.”

-- Riya Shetty (Sugartown Elementary)

